

Media Broadcasting Companies use the public airwaves free of charge, however, they are expected serve the public interest in order to maintain their licenses. Media consolidation is in direct opposition to democracy. A case in point, is the Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. Sinclair Broadcasting should either be stripped of it's licenses or stripped of all but one of it's stations.